

Alleluia, alleluia!

The virgin will give birth to a son;
his name will be Emmanuel: God-is-with-us.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Mt 1:18–24

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

Jesus was born of Mary, the betrothed of Joseph, a son of David.

This is how Jesus Christ came to be born. His mother Mary was betrothed to Joseph; but before they came to live together she was found to be with child through the Holy Spirit. Her husband Joseph, being a man of honour and wanting to spare her publicity, decided to divorce her informally. He had made up his mind to do this when the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, and said 'Joseph son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary home as your wife, because she has conceived what is in her by the Holy Spirit. She will give birth to a son and you must name him Jesus, because he is the one who is to save his people from their sins.' Now all this took place to fulfil the words spoken by the Lord through the prophet:

The virgin will conceive and give birth to a son and they will call him Emmanuel,
a name which means 'God-is-with-us'.

When Joseph woke up he did what the angel of the Lord had told him to do: he took his wife to his home.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT / A

GOD CARES

While many people can assert that God exists, it is often a huge leap to be able to say with confidence that God cares about what we are going through. It is even a greater leap to be able to say that God actually cares enough to be with us in the complexity and challenges of our lives. Both the first reading from Isaiah and today's Gospel proclaim that God cares enough to be with us and that the living God often works in and through the most disturbing and surprising events. King Ahaz had given in to despair in the face of the imminent attack on Jerusalem by more powerful forces. Joseph was struggling to come to terms with Mary's pregnancy which was both disconcerting and unexpected. Both Ahaz and Joseph were led to recognise that God's presence was to be seen in the birth of a child whose very name – God with us – was a constant reminder not to lose heart in the God who loves us.

As Paul begins the letter to the Romans, he reflects on the marvellous call that he has received to be an apostle. He sets the story of Jesus firmly within the saving history of God's dealings with the people of Israel, but this is not the end of the story. The God of surprises has made it clear to Paul that what happened in the birth of Jesus belongs to all humanity. In Jesus, God has come close to all peoples and Paul's mission is to preach this message to the nations.

FIRST READING

Isa 7:10–14

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

The virgin will conceive.

The Lord spoke to Ahaz and said, 'Ask the Lord your God for a sign for yourself coming either from the depths of Sheol or from the heights above.' 'No,' Ahaz answered 'I will not put the Lord to the test.'

Then Isaiah said:

'Listen now, House of David:

are you not satisfied with trying the patience of men

without trying the patience of God, too?

The Lord himself, therefore,
will give you a sign.

It is this: the maiden is with child
and will soon give birth to a son whom she will call Emmanuel,
a name which means "God-is-with-us".'

RESP PSALM

Ps 23:1–6. R. cf. vv. 7, 10

R. Let the Lord enter; he is king of glory.

1. The Lord's is the earth and its fullness,
the world and all its peoples.

It is he who set it on the seas;
on the waters he made it firm. R.

2. Who shall climb the mountain of the Lord?
Who shall stand in his holy place?

The man with clean hands and pure heart,
who desires not worthless things. R.

3. He shall receive blessings from the Lord and reward from the God who saves him.

Such are the men who seek him,
seek the face of the God of Jacob. R.

SECOND READING

Rom 1:1–7

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

Jesus Christ, a descendant of David, is the Son of God.

From Paul, a servant of Christ Jesus who has been called to be an apostle, and specially chosen to preach the Good News that God promised long ago through his prophets in the scriptures.

This news is about the Son of God, who, according to the human nature he took, was a descendant of David: it is about Jesus Christ our Lord who, in the order of the spirit, the spirit of holiness that was in him, was proclaimed Son of God in all his power through his resurrection from the dead. Through him we received grace and our apostolic mission to preach the obedience of faith to all pagan nations in honour of his name. You are one of these nations, and by his call belong to Jesus Christ. To you all, then, who are God's beloved in Rome, called to be saints, may God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ send grace and peace.

Saturday - 24 December—5.00pm St Andrew's, 6.30pm St Agnes'
Sunday - 25 December Midnight St Agnes' - 9.00am St Andrew's

A Message from our Pastor

Greetings to all parishioners and visitors of St Andrew & St Agnes Twinned Catholic Parishes, Malabar —

Matraville. Last Saturday, 17 December we began our Novena (9 Days) before our Christmas celebration. The mood of our Church's liturgy has changed from the coming of the Christ at the end of time to remembering that God's plan for salvation of the human race took place by the birth of Jesus, Son of God in Bethlehem 2000 years ago. We must remember that the reason for this Season is the birth of Jesus the Christ, the anointed one.

Our nativities scenes have been prepared, awaiting Jesus to be placed in them at Christmas. Today in our Gospel we hear about Faithful Joseph and his dilemma about Mary his betrothed already with Child through the Power of the Holy Spirit. He listens to the Angel in his dream and takes Mary home as his wife. Jesus Son of God and Son of Mary, totally human and totally divine. All our celebrations reflect this fact and as we who belong to Jesus Christ through baptism. Are ready to celebrate Christmas Joy next weekend?

Please note our Christmas Masses next weekend are the same as last year.
St Andrew's Malabar: Christmas Vigil Masses Saturday 24 December: 5.00pm & 7.00pm, Christmas Day Mass Sunday 25 December: 9.00am
St Agnes's Matraville: Christmas Vigil Mass Saturday 24 December: 6.30pm, Christmas Day Masses Sunday 25 December: Midnight & 10.00am

Please pass on these important Christmas Mass times to your friends, relatives, and neighbours.

Looking forward to seeing you all at Christmas to celebrate the birth of the Messiah, Jesus Christ.

God Bless

A message from the Archdiocese of Sydney: Child sexual abuse is a crime. The appropriate people to deal with crimes are the police. If you, or anyone you know, have been abused, please contact the police. Alternatively, you can contact the Safeguarding and Ministerial Integrity Office at (02) 9390 5810 or safeguarding.enquiries@sydneycatholic.org. You may also want to speak to your Parish Priest who will be able to provide support and guidance. The Archdiocese has a legal obligation to report crimes to the police.
